About Sevananda Natural Foods Market

Sevananda has been a leader in natural foods, herbs and holistic wellness and body care since 1974. We are a community owned cooperative with over 4,000 of our shoppers who are member-owners.

Our mission is to empower the community to improve its health and well-being, and live as gently on the Earth as possible. Our policy does not allow us to sell any products for which the animal must be slaughtered, nor those which contain refined sugar. (See our product policy at sev.coop/productpolicy.)

Vendor Submission Process At A Glance

1. Email the Department Buyer. State New Vendor Inquiry in email subject line.
2. In the email, introduce your product and include your website and wholesale and retail price list; including any deals or specials.
3. In the email, also advise if you have product liability insurance.
4. Submit Product Sample for the Department Buyer. Include your business card and any brochure or catalog from your company.
5. Prospective vendors must have the ability to comply with Sevananda's Vendor Requirements Agreement form. (Form is available on line.)
6. The Department Buyer will review your submission and respond. The Vendor Requirements Agreement Form and the Vendor Information/Application Form (form available on line) would be submitted only after your submission is approved.
